SIR,

In continuation of my letter No.371/76-07 dated 1/3rd March 1917, I have the honor to report that the Officer in charge of the Madras Arsenal has not yet sent a bill of cost of the 50 S B.B.L.M.H. Carbines etc. supplied by him to the Central Jail, Bangalore. The Superintendent of this Jail brings to my notice that the cost of the carbines in question should be adjusted before the close of the current official year otherwise the funds sanctioned for meeting the same will lapse to Government and necessit will arise for obtaining fresh sanction in the next year's Budget He further states that the 50 Muzzle loading guns with appurtenances and ammunition that were in his possession were returned to the Arsenal on the 12th instant, as has been directed in lette No.1734 dated 5-3-1917 received from the Residency.

2. In these circumstances I request that you will be so good as to address the authorities of the Madras Arsenal, so that they may furnish the bill of cost of the carbines in question to the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, for adjustment before the end of the current official year.
